NEW YORK, S; PITTSBURGE, 6. Just when the faithful followers of the New Yorks thought that Joyce's men were going to lose yesterday, there came a sudden brace with the stick, and before the smoke of battle cleared away the locals had scored five runs and pulled the came out of the fire. Hantings was quite effective up to the seventh inning, when the above catastrophe took place. The Pitteburgha hit Mike Sullivan rather freely at first, but later on his fine support helped him out immeasurably. The infielding of Gleasonr Joyce, Ely, and George Davis was a feature. Denny Lyons considered at one period that no knew more about umpiring than Bob Emalie, and was quickly thrust upon the bench, where he reged

After Sullivan had bowled the Pittsburghs over in the first inning Tiernan made a hit with one out in the last half and was forced by Gleason. The Kid ran to second on a wild pitch, where he was left, as Capt. Joyce struck out. In the second Elmer Smith took four balls and was forced by Lyons. Merritt flied to Van and Harry Davis scratched a hit to Joyce. Hastinge put a single near the right field foul line and Lyons scored. Padden filed to Tiernan. With two out in New York's half, Stafford drove a two-bagger to left and ran in on Wilson's scratch, the latter being forced by Sul-

Patsy Donovan opened the third with a clean two-bagger to left, took third on Ely's out, and scored on Stenzel's scratch. The latter stole second on a poor throw by Wilson. Smith struck out and Lyans was hit by a pitched bail, but Merritt forced Stenzel. The New Yorks in their half scored two runs and took the lead. Van Haltren got a life on Ely's tumble and ran to third on Gleason's single. Their Cab., Jorce whanged a hot two-bagger to right and sen in both men. Joyce was declared out for interfering with Lyons on Davis's grounder, and Stenzel got in the way of Beckley's tremendous drive for the third out.

The visitors again forged abend in the fourth. With one out, Hastings singled, and scored on Padden's two-bagger to left. Padden waitzed to third on a passed bail, and huatled in on Donovan's single. Ely struck out, and Gleason made a superb stop of Stenzel's bid for a hit, Jacob going out at first. In the last half Wilson made a hit, with one out, and stole second, where he was left. two-bagger to left, took third on Ely's out, and Jacob going out at first. In the last half Wilson made a bit, with one out, and stole second, where he was left.

Pittsburgh was quickly blanked in the fifth. Pittsburgh was quickly blanked in the fifth Gleason then hit for two bases after Tieroan was out in New York's half, and was caught off hird when Joyce was thrown out at first. In he sixth after two were out, Padden got a life in a wild throw by Gleason, and was nailed on tateal. The New York's went out in rapid suctession, the feature being Elv's phenomenal latch of an apparent base hit from Davis's stick. Two more runs were made by Mack's playsra in the seventh. Donovan got a base on balls, Ely filed to Joyce, and Stenzel, who forced Donovan, landed at third on a wild pitch. Smith's Ky fell out of Staford's reach. Stenzel coming in, and Denny Lyons drove a corking two-bagger to left, on which Smith counted. Then Merritt grounded to Davis, and the score was d to 3 against New York. Then Joyce's men took a brace amid a roar of enthusiasm. Wilson took four balls, Sullivan singled, Van Haltren doubled, Wilson scoring, and Tiernas flied to Stenzel. Gleason's out let Sullivan in.

Joyce's base hit put Van on the plate with the tying run, and Davis landed Scrapsy on third with a crack to right. Just as George stole. Merritt with a quick throw came near catching Joyce off third. When the umpire said "Safe!" Jones made such a scene that he was floally ordered out of the game, and Wright took his place. Beckley then brought in Joyce and Davis with a hit, and Staford bunsed, only to be forced by Wilson. Five runs had been senred, and the locals had a lead of 8 to 6.

Hastinger made his thred and in the Pittsburgh's eighth, but it amounted to nothing, as hig Sullivan used his appead with good results. After that there were no more runs. The score:

To the Editor of The Sch-Sir, in going to the Polo grounds to see the New Yorks play ball my pleasure has always been very much decreased by the appearance of the New York players. I have never seen a visiting team appear at the Polo grounds in such a job lot of uniforms. On Labor Day, for instance, one half of the players had their last year's black-trimined uniforms and the other half had marcon trimmings. Not one of the players spypsared upon the grounds with a half-way clean suit on. A young lady who accompanied me to the game was so disgusted that it will be very hard to indive her to see another game in which the New Yorks participate. Yours truly.

Nearly everybody on the grounds gathered about the half-mile track in the afternoon when the trotters were called up for the races.
Both of the events on the programme developed exciting sport, and the heats were so divided that it was too late to start the third race of the speedy but erratic little Clenega settled down and trotted a winning mile in 2:39. It was now Stranger's turn to win, and the level-headed three-year-old went to the front in straight

Hurstbourne Seis Wine the Free-for-all Stake at Kennedy. KENNEDY, Minn., Sept. 8 .- Owing to the few starters to-day in the Continental Ciub's Derby, the Free-for-all Stakes, with seven starters, was drawn at noon, and two braces were tried in the afternoon on grounds east of town. There were not chickens enough to thoroughly test the dogs. Zip and Tony Work were first down, and were very tired at the end of their trial. Zip did far the better work. Glenn and Christena found game and ran a close competition in the third series. After Zip and Christena had ran, the following awards were made:

First prize to Herstbourne Seis, owned by S. P. Jones of Louisville; second to Christena, and third to Gieun, both owned by Hobart Ames of North Easton, Mass.; fourth prize to Tony Work, owned by the Delmonte Kennels, Waverly, Miss.

Work, owned by the Delmonte Kenneis, Waverly, Miss.
The All-Age Stake was then taken up and Yon Gull and Noble's Leo tried. The former was better in every respect. The latter is out of the stake entirely. Gleams Ruth and Domino were excellent in pace and range, but found no game. Slater Sue and Greenway followed. Both went well, but Sue behaved poorly on the only game found. Sam T. went alone. After a dashing run for a few minutes he seemed to have had enough, and at the end of thirty minutes had alout quit work. He will hardly receive another trial. Chickens are hard to find

NEWS OF THE WHEELMEN. MANAGEMENT CRITICISED AT THE MANHATTAN REACH MEET.

It Is Claimed That There Were Too Many Officials, and Caroless Beckelous the Re-sult-Bicycle Repair Men Havon Ories-aute - More Members for the L. A. W. The management of the bloycle meeting held at Manhattan Beach on last Monday was characterized by racing men as extremely poor. The neeting was held presumably under the auspices of the South Brooklyn Wheelmen, but affair. There were thirty-nine officials present, including eleven

A well-known racing man, in commenting resterday upon the meeting, criticised the decision of Referee L R Potter in debarring the riders in the first and second trials of the onemile scratch race from taking part in the final heat, due to their failure to come inside of the time limit, as unjust. It is claimed that Potter's action would have been justifiable if he had not made the third heat of the race a final one and then put in a pacemaker. Such action gave a decided advantage to the riders in the heat. Patrons of racing are becoming tired of the independent action of racing men in trial heats in disregarding time limits, and it is felt that for the best interests of racing and the proper conduct of meets a referee should, under no circumstances, when the conditions are favorable for fast time, allow a trial heat to be

The opening of new roads in the outskirts of the city has been taken advantage of by bicycle dealers and repairers of wheels. They have settled in places convenient to these new thoroughfares with the object of securing trade from tourists while out riding. Singular as it may seem, the proprietors of the blcycle repair may seem, the proprietors of the bicycle repair shops located along the Coney Island cycle path, and at points on Long Island and in New Jersey, complain that riders seem to look upon them as enemies rather than friends. The proprietor of a repair shop in the vicinity of the Brocklyn cycle path, in a talk with The Sun reporter on Labor Day, discussed the feeling of distrust manifested by wheelmen as follows:

"While bicycle riders are apt to meet with such accidents as a deflated tire, a bent pedal crank or handle bar, or some broken spokes while out for a ride in the country, these same men come to us for repairs with reluctance. We can only attribute this feeling to the frequent allegations that the distribution of tacks and broken glass slong the roads is the work of some repairers in the vicinity. Such charges are childish. Why only last week a young woman entered my repair shop with the front and rear tires of her bicycle punctured. She had extracted two sharp-pointed tacks from the front tire, and, holding them up for my inspection, said: 'Weil, i suppose that this is the work of some of your ciever repair men, but as I must get to Hath Beach to keep an appointment, I will let you repair my wheel. Otherwise I would trundle it back through the park to the city.' These remarks indicate what a feeling is entertained against us. Instead of aiding tack throwers we really exercise as much care as possible to detect them." shops located along the Coney Island cycle

A GREAT CABIN CAT RACE. The Sent Wins the Lynch Cup After the

One of the best yacht races for cabin cats seen for some time on the upper bay took place yes erday afternoon off Bay Ridge, when five of the fastest boats of this type resailed their postponed race for the Lynch Cup offered by Robert B. Lynch, the owner of the cutter Lynx. The race, which was sailed under the auspices of the Atlantic Yacht Club, would have been decided on Monday but for the calm which prevented any of the boats finishing, so the owners of the racers decided to sail the race off yesterday, and it was also agreed that no prize should be awarded unless the race was finished inside of Atlantic Yacht Club, would have been decided awarded unless the race was finished inside of three hours.

The entries included the Crosby cats, Dorothy, Scat, and Estelle: the Gielow-designed Streak, and the Squaw, a weighted centreboard boat designed by Gilbert Smith of Patchogue, L. I. These are the fastest boats of their type affoat, and the result of their meeting was watched with interest by yachtsmen all over the country. There was a fine northeasterly breeze yesterday, and all carried single reefs during the early part of the race.

The Dorothy, better known as the Step Lively, evidently found the conditions to her liking yesterday, and beat the entire fleet. Unfortunately her skipper fouled one of the buoys on the first round and was disqualited, which gave the race and cup to the Scat. The Streak won second prize and cup to the Scat. The Streak won second prize and the Squaw was third. The Scat, which was the smallest boat of the lot, sailed a great race, though, and thoroughly deserved her victory, and as a matter of fact she has won overy race she has started in this season. away, being timed at 2:20:38; then came the Estelle, 2:30:50; Dorothy, 2:21:11; Scat, S:21:26; Streak, 2:25:11. It was a run to the bell buoy in the ship channel, then a beat to buoy 14 and a reach home on the port tack. The Dorothy seen took the lead, and the yachts were timed at the completion of the first round as follows: Dorothy, 3:22:209; Squaw, 3:24:02; Estelle, 3:27:29; Streak, 3:30:48; Scat, 3:38:38;

On the second round reefs were shaken out, and the Scat made a big gain on the leaders, their times at the completion of the round being Dorothy, 4:17:51; Squaw, 4:23:26; Estelle, 4:26:14; Scat, 4:26:57; Streak, 4:28:51. There was little change in the order of the fleet to the finish, when the yachts were timed as they crossed the line as follows: Dorothy, 5:09:32; Squaw, 5:10:32; Scat, 5:20:08; Estelle, 5:21:21; Streak, 5:21:35. The Prospects Among the Big Athletic Ctube in This Vicinity. The football prospects among the big athletiorganizations in this vicinity this fall is very bright. The Crescent A. C. has decided to play all its home games at the Bay Ridge grounds. While no captain has been selected it is said that either Phil King, the ex-Princeton leader. or Bert Prait, the old Amherat player, will likely fill the position. The satter is an excellent quarter back and has also played at full back creditably. King may coach one of the Western college teams, in which event he will be unable to play with the Crescents. Among the members of last year's team who will play this season are is aldwin, Haskell, Love, Curry, MacKenzie, Weir, Smith, Pratt, Kelley, and Burt, There will be a large collection of new candidates.

There will be a large collection of new candidates.

Some of the veteran players on the Orange A. C. team, including Huell, Oliver, De Hart, Coyne, and Marshall, it is said, have decided to retire from the game. These men were regarded as the mainstay of the team. The New Jersey and Elizabeth Athletic clubs intend to turn out formidable teams. The management of both clubs have arranged games with all the big colleges. There has been some talk of organizing a four-cornered league to include the Creacent, New Jersey, Orange, and Flizabeth clubs. It was stated yesterday, however, by prominent members of the above clubs that beyond the saggestion of such a movement no steps have been taken to form a league.
